For the safety of our court users, staff and community, and at the recommendation of State and local officials and the center for disease control, the Court is significantly reducing operations that require gatherings of people. Your hearing may be re-scheduled and if so, a new notice of hearing date will be sent to you or your attorney. Please refer to the website for further information. Please refer to courtroom 1, 5, 6 and 7 for any court hearings that are being heard via video conference.
